Skill #1

SPOT THE PHISH

Phishing is when a cyber ghoul tries to trick you into giving away personal info—like passwords, usernames, or even photos—by pretending to be someone they're not.

These messages might look like they're from a friend, a teacher, or even your favorite game. But if they ask for private info, say something scary, or feel off... don't fall for it!

What to do:

Show an adult.

Then DELETE.

Never click, respond, or share personal information.

Scammers don't always wear villain capes.

Sometimes, they hide behind messages that seem friendly, fun, or even urgent. But don't fall for the bait!

Let's test your scam-spotting skills.

Circle ALL the things you should do:

1. Tell a parent or trusted adult
2. Click the link—because, hello, free money!
3. Double-check if this is really Mia's number
4. Respond with your passwords ASAP to be helpful
5. Delete the message if it feels weird
6. Block the number
7. Don't reply, don't click, don't share
8. Stay calm—scammers want you to panic
9. Text "STOP SCAMMING ME!" in all caps
10. Tape your password to your forehead so no one needs to ask again

Answer Key: 1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8

Show what you know!

Mark True or False:

- ☐ True ☐ False It's safe to click any message that says "You won!"
- ☐ True ☐ False Scammers only target adults
- ☐ True ☐ False Passwords should be strong and private
- ☐ True ☐ False It's smart to post your school name online
- ☐ True ☐ False You should always talk to an adult if something feels off
- ☐ True ☐ False Phishing is a way scammers pretend to be someone else
- ☐ True ☐ False Even deleted posts can still be found online

Skill #2

KEEP YOUR INFO PRIVATE

Even small details like your birthday or school name can be used by scammers. If someone online asks for:

- Your full name
- Photos of you
- Where you go to school
- Your address or passwords

3. S L Y M B O S

4. T N E F R E I D F

Skill #4

THINK BEFORE YOU SHARE

Sometimes the best thing to share online... is nothing at all. Once something is posted, it can live online forever. Scammers might use a photo, caption, or even a location tag to learn more than you meant to share.

Even if you're allowed to post, it's smart to be extra careful.

Activity: The Safer Post Challenge
